FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

6+ launches "Daughters of Palestine"

1/17/2009

"May God help us and others against the injustice and the brutality of the occupation. What they have done to us is nothing compared to what they do in the Gaza strip."

- Hayat Nafiz, Dheisheh Refugee Camp, December 2007

For the past 4 years, the 6+ collective has been working with the Al Feneiq Cultural Center in Dheisheh Refugee Camp in the Occupied Territories of Palestine. The "Daughters of Palestine" web project linked here documents the powerful narratives of 16 young girls from the Dheisheh Camp, recorded in December 2007. One of the horrors of the occupation of Palestine and the War on Gaza is the blatant disregard for the lives of children. We can accept no justification for the atrocities the State of Israel is committing in Gaza, nor for the ongoing incarceration of an entire people. We add our voices to the many others around the world, including inside Israel, calling for the liberation of Palestine. Please take the time to listen to the stories of these young girls, who use their voices as testimony to the hardships of living under the occupation.
